Morning and Evening Prayer,

ARRANGED FOR

CHORAL SERVICE.

The Minister shall begin by reading one or more of the following Sentences of Scripture:

The Lord is in His holy temple; &c.

THE LORD is in His holy temple; Let all the earth keep silence before Him. Hab. ii. 20.

From the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same, My Name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto My Name, and a pure offering; for My Name shall be great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hosts. Mal. i. 11.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be alway acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my Strength and my Redeemer. Psaln xix. 14, 15.

When the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. Ezek. xviii. 27.

I acknowledge my transgressions; and my sin is ever before me. Psaln li. 3.

Hide Thy face from my sins; and blot out all mine iniquities. Psaln li. 9.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise. Psaln li. 17.

Rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God; for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Joel ii. 13.

To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against Him; neither have we obeyed the voice of the Lord our God, to walk in His laws which He set before us. Dan. ix. 9, 10.

O Lord, correct me, but with judgment; not in Thine anger, lest Thou bring me to nothing. Jer. x. 24, Psalm vi. 1.

Repent ye; for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. St. Matt. iii. 2.

I will arise, and go to my Father, and will say unto Him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before Thee, and am no more worthy to be called Thy son. St. Luke xv. 18, 19.

Enter not into judgment with Thy servant, O Lord; for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified. Psaln cxliii. 2.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us; but if we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John i. 8, 9.

Then the Minister shall say,

MINISTER.

DEARLY beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us, in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness; and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God, our heavenly Father, but confess them, with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart; to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by His infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought, at all times, humbly to acknowledge our sins before God; yet ought we chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at His hands, to set forth His most worthy praise, to hear His most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart, and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying—

A General Confession, to be said by the whole Congregation, after the Minister, all kneeling.

MINISTER AND PEOPLE.

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father; We have erred, and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done: And we have done those things which we ought not to have done: And there is no health in us. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare Thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent; According to Thy promises declared unto mankind, in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of Thy Holy Name.

A - MEN.

[¶ The Declaration of Absolution, or Remission of Sins; to be made by the Priest alone, standing; the People still kneeling.]

PRIEST.

ALMIGHTY God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live, hath given power, and commandment, to His Ministers, to declare and pronounce to His people, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of their sins. He pardoneth and absolveth all those who truly repent, and unfeignedly believe His holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech Him to grant us true repentance, and His Holy Spirit, that those things may please Him which we do at this present; and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy; so that at the last we may come to His eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ANSWER.

A - MEN.

The People shall answer here, and at the end of every Prayer, Amen.

Or this:

ALMIGHTY God, our heavenly Father, who of His great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all those who, with hearty repentance and true faith, turn unto Him; Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lord's Prayer: the People still kneeling, and repeating it with him, both here, and wheresoever else it is used in Divine Service.

MINISTER AND PEOPLE.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name, Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.

A - MEN.

¶ Then likewise he shall say:

MINISTER.

ANSWER.

O LORD, o - pen Thou our lips. And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

ORG.

¶ Here, all standing up, the Minister shall say,

MINISTER.

APOSTLES' CREED.

I BELIEVE in GOD the FATHER Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth:

And in JESUS CHRIST His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the HOLY GHOST, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into Hell; The third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into Heaven; And sitteth on the right hand of GOD the FATHER Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the HOLY GHOST; The Holy Catholic Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body; And the Life everlasting. Amen.

NICENE CREED.

I BELIEVE in one GOD the FATHER Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth, and of all things visible and invisible :

And in one Lord JESUS CHRIST, the Only-begotten Son of God ; Begotten of His FATHER before all worlds, GOD of GOD, Light of Light, very GOD of very GOD ; Begotten, not made ; Being of one substance with the FATHER ; by Whom all things were made : Who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the HOLY GHOST of the Virgin Mary, And was made man : And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate ; He suffered and was buried : and the third day He rose again, according to the Scriptures : And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the FATHER : And He shall come again, with glory, to judge both the quick and the dead ; Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the HOLY GHOST, the Lord, and Giver of life, Who proceedeth from the FATHER and the SON ; Who with the FATHER and the SON together is worshipped and glorified ; Who spake by the Prophets : And I believe one Catholic and Apostolic Church : I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins : and I look for the Resurrection of the dead : and the Life of the world to come. Amen.

A Collect for Peace. (ONLY IN MORNING.)

O GOD, who art the author of peace and lover of concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose service is perfect freedom; defend us, Thy humble servants, in all assaults of our enemies; that we, surely trusting in Thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Collect for Grace. (ONLY IN MORNING.)

O LORD, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; defend us in the same with Thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings, being ordered by Thy governance, may be righteous in Thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Collect for Peace. (ONLY IN EVENING.)

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; give unto Thy servants that peace, which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey Thy commandments, and also that by Thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

A Collect for Aid against Perils. (ONLY IN EVENING.)

O LORD, our heavenly Father, by whose Almighty power we have been preserved this day; by Thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of Thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Prayer for the PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES, and all in Civil Authority.

O LORD, our heavenly Father, the high and mighty Ruler of the universe, who dost from Thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; most heartily we beseech Thee, with Thy favour to behold and bless Thy servant, The President of the United States, and all others in authority; and so replenish them with the grace of Thy Holy Spirit, that they may always incline to Thy will, and walk in Thy way. Endue them plenteously with heavenly gifts; grant them in health and prosperity long to live; and finally, after this life, to attain everlasting joy and felicity; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Prayer for the Clergy and People.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift, send down upon our Bishops and other Clergy, and upon the Congregations committed to their charge, the healthful spirit of Thy grace; and, that they may truly please Thee, pour upon them the continual dew of Thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ. Amen.

A Prayer for all Conditions of Men.

O GOD, the Creator and Preserver of all mankind, we humbly beseech Thee for all sorts and conditions of men, that Thou wouldest be pleased to make Thy ways known unto them, Thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for Thy holy Church universal; that it may be so guided and governed by Thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally, we commend to Thy fatherly goodness, all those who are any ways afflicted, or distressed, in mind, body, or estate; that it may please Thee to comfort and relieve them, according to their several necessities; giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

A General Thanksgiving.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, Thine unworthy servants, do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving kindness to us, and to all men. We bless Thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech Thee, give us that due sense of all Thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer of S. CHRYSOSTOM.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto Thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in Thy Name Thou wilt grant their requests; fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of Thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of Thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. xiii. 14.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

BLESSED be Thou, O LORD, for giving us this Holy Day of Rest, for appointing one day in seven to be Thine own — to be spent in learning our Christian duty, in hearing Thy blessed Word, and in worshipping Thee in Thy holy Church. Help us, O LORD, to turn away our thoughts from pleasure, folly, and worldly cares, and teach us to join in Thy service with delight; and to be serious and attentive — and may Thy Holy Spirit be with us this day in our goings out and comings in, for JESUS CHRIST'S sake. Amen.

O LORD Most High, who art our life, our strength and joy, our ever present helper and defender, we come to confess our sins before Thee, and to pray for what we need. Give us the mind which was in CHRIST JESUS our LORD. Make us gentle and obedient, loving, brave, and true. Keep our childhood holy, and our youth pure and good, so that the longer we live we may grow more and more into the likeness of the perfect man. Thou knowest our temptations, Heavenly FATHER: help us to watch against them, and to win the victory over them, remembering that Thou hast promised to those who are faithful unto death a crown of life. Pity our weakness, O LORD, for we are Thy children and the work of Thy hands; Thou hast called us by our names; we are Thine. Send down upon us, for our present need, the dew of Thy heavenly grace. Bless us in the work before us now. Make us quick to learn and eager to be taught; may the good seed of Thy Word, planted in our hearts to-day, bring forth abundant fruit in days to come. Thou hast made our bodies the temples of Thy presence; may our lives show forth Thy praise. LORD, hear our prayer, and let our cry come unto Thee for the sake of Thy dear Son, our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. Amen.

KEEP us in Thy fold, O Thou Shepherd of Israel, and lead us forth continually by the green pastures and the still waters, till, supported by Thy rod and staff, we pass through the dark valley of the shadow of death, fearing no evil, for Thou art with us, and enter Thy Courts of Light and Joy, there to dwell with Thee for ever. Amen.

O LORD JESUS CHRIST, who didst sit lowly in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them and asking them questions; grant unto us, Thy servants, both aptness to teach, and willingness to learn Thy blessed will; who livest and reignest with the FATHER and the HOLY GHOST, One God, world without end. Amen.

THE LORD bless us and keep us. The LORD make His face to shine upon us, and be gracious unto us. The LORD lift up His countenance upon us, and give us peace. Amen.

OUR FATHER, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: But deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. AMEN.

[Then after the Collect for the Day (p. 28, &c.), may follow one or more of these Prayers.]

LORD, most gracious SAVIOUR, who, as on this day, didst rise again from the dead, raise up our souls unto newness of life, granting us repentance from dead works, and transforming us in the likeness of Thy Resurrection. Amen.

LORD GOD, we humbly beseech Thee to direct our thoughts and prayers this day: purify our hearts from every evil and false imagination, and may no vain and worldly desires have their abode in us. Keep us from all wandering looks and ways, from an undevout mind, and careless prayers. Let the Voice of Thy Love enter into our souls, that we may study Thy Word with reverence and holy fear, with fervour and delight. O God, Thou seest us: help us to look up unto Thee; for the sake of Thy SON, JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

GREAT and gracious God, do Thou look down with mercy and love on this school; if Thou be with us, none can be against us. Bless us each and all in our several stations, and enable us humbly and conscientiously to fulfil those duties which Thou hast entrusted to us, not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart serving Thee. Do Thou make us to live in unity one with another, and in peace with all men. May we seek the good of one another rather than of ourselves, remembering that we are not our own, but bought with a price. O God, may Thy Name be hallowed, not only with our lips, but in our lives, and Thy Will be done with all our heart and with all our strength. So shall Thy blessing be with us for Christ's sake. Amen.

GOD, who didst reveal Thyself to Thy Prophet Samuel while he was yet a child; grant unto us, Thy children, the knowledge of Thy will, that we may ever walk in Thy commandments, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

THE grace of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the love of GOD, and the fellowship of the HOLY GHOST, be with us all evermore. Amen.

OUR LORD JESUS, our merciful REDEEMER, who didst call children to Thee, and didst take them in Thine arms and bless them; give Thy blessing to us also, we beseech Thee, this day, and through the whole course of our lives. Grant that we may ever love Thee above all things, and with our whole hearts; and that we may earnestly seek after that happiness for which we were created. Bless our dear parents, relations, teachers, pastors, and benefactors; preserve them from all evil, and direct them to all good; and grant that we may meet in Thy eternal kingdom; and to Thee, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, shall be all praise. Amen.

BLESSED LORD, who hast given us a new commandment that we should love one another as Thou hast loved us, and hast taught us that where envy and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work, give us grace to be kindly affectioned, and to love one another with a pure heart. Put far from us all anger and evil speaking, that we may obtain the blessing of the peace-makers, and walk in love, even as Thou hast loved us; through Thy merits, O blessed SAVIOUR and REDEEMER. Amen.

OUR MERCIFUL FATHER, do Thou enable us day by day to increase in wisdom and holiness. May we never forget that Thine eye is always upon us, and that Thou art about our path, and art acquainted with all our ways. Enable us to resist the sins that we deplore, and to strive to do those things that Thou wouldest have done. O God, may Thy HOLY SPIRIT never leave our hearts, but guide us continually and lead us into all truth, for our SAVIOUR's sake. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting GOD, the Giver of every good and perfect gift, send Thy blessing, we beseech Thee, on all who teach in this school, and so strengthen them by the grace of Thy HOLY SPIRIT, that they may build up in the faith and love of Thy dear SON those for whom He died and rose again: through the same Thy SON JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting GOD, heavenly FATHER, we give Thee humble thanks that Thou hast vouchsafed to call us to the knowledge of Thy grace and faith in Thee. Increase this knowledge, and confirm this faith in us evermore. Give Thy HOLY SPIRIT to these children; that they, being born again, and being made heirs of everlasting salvation, through our LORD JESUS CHRIST, may continue Thy servants, and attain Thy promises; through the same our LORD JESUS CHRIST Thy SON, who liveth and reigneth, with Thee and the HOLY SPIRIT, now and for ever. Amen.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting GOD, who makest us both to will and to do those things that are good and acceptable unto Thy divine Majesty; we make our humble supplications unto Thee for these Thy children. Let Thy fatherly hand, we beseech Thee, ever be over them; let Thy HOLY SPIRIT ever be with them; and so lead them in the knowledge and obedience of Thy Word, that in the end they may obtain everlasting life; through our LORD JESUS CHRIST, who, with Thee and the HOLY GHOST, liveth and reigneth, ever One GOD, world without end. Amen.

WE thank Thee, O LORD, for this Thy Holy Day, and for all the blessings which it brings us ; and we beseech Thee of Thy great goodness, that these days which bear Thy Name may never cease to be unto us as days of heaven upon earth, and lights to guide us from earth to heaven. Give us, we pray Thee, some work to do for Thee during the week upon which we have now entered ; and whatever it be, may we do it with all our might. In all our duties and employments, in the least as in the greatest, let us be mindful of Thy Presence, that it may be seen by our ways and behaviour whose we are. Lord, we are Thine : let us not grieve Thee, nor do hurt to others, by our faithlessness. Restrain all that is evil in us, and strengthen and confirm what is Thine own ; for our SAVIOUR'S sake. Amen.

[The following Prayer may be used if the Sunday School precedes the Church Service.]

O LORD, we beseech Thee let Thy Presence be with us in Thy House of Prayer, that it may be unto us a sanctuary of strength and beauty. Let Thy Spirit descend upon us, that our hearts may be filled with pure and holy worship, until at last, of Thine infinite mercy, it is granted unto us to enter Thy Temple above, to live in Thy Presence, and to give Thee praise for ever. Amen.

MAY the Almighty and merciful LORD, the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY GHOST, bless us, and defend us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.

Blessed Lord, who hast caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning; grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience, and comfort of Thy Holy Word, we may embrace, and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which Thou hast given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE THIRD SUNDAY IN ADVENT.

And especially to this congregation present, give the abundance of Thy grace; that with one heart they may desire the prosperity of Thy holy Apostolic Church, and with one mouth may profess the faith once delivered to the Saints. Defend them from the sins of heresy and schism; let not the foot of pride come nigh to hurt them, nor the hand of the ungodly to cast them down. And grant that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by Thy governance, that Thy Church may joyfully serve Thee in all godly quietness; that so they may walk in the ways of truth and peace, and at last be numbered with Thy Saints in glory everlasting; through Thy merits, O blessed Jesus, Thou gracious Bishop and Shepherd of our souls, who art with the Father and the Holy Ghost One God, world without end. Amen.

2 Let all thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noon-day clear;
Think how the all-seeing God, thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.

4 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

3 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part;
Who all night long unwearied sing,
"Glory to Thee, eternal King."

5 Direct, control, suggest this day
All I design, or do, or say,
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

6 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

New ev - ery morning is the love Our wak - ing and up - ris - ing prove;

Thro' sleep and darkness safely brought, Restored to life, and pow'r, and thought. AMEN.

- 2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.
- 3 If on our daily course our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

- 4 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we ought to ask:
Room to deny ourselves: a road
To bring us daily nearer God.
- 5 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us this, and every day
To live more nearly as we pray.

Goes up to heaven: and so at dawn
I lift my thoughts to God.

3 I think how Thou didst wake, O Lord,
Before the break of day,
And seek the lonely mountain sward;
So teach my lips to pray.

4 I think how Thou didst sleep and rise,
So many nights and days,
A Child obedient, holy, wise,
And perfect in Thy ways.

5 The dawn of day, the dawn of life,
Were hest alike to Thee;
Thou know'st the danger and the strife;
Lord bless them both to me.

O God, who, when the night was deep, Hast kept me safe and lent me sleep,

Now with Thy sun Thou bid'st me rise, And look around with older eyes. A - MEN.

2 Each morning Thou dost give,
I have one morning less to live;
O help me so this day to spend,
To make me fitter for the end.

3 O bid all wicked thoughts to fly;
The fretful word, the idle eye;
Help me to think in all I do.
"God sees me:—would He have it so?"

4 Make my first wish and thought to be
For others sooner than for me;
And let me pardon them, as I
Hope for God's pardon when I die.

5 Be with me when I work and play;
Be with me now and every day:
Be near me, when I pray Thee hear;
And when I pray not,—Lord! be near.

And labour is joy,
How sweet is the leisure—

What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like Thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness,
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

The Story of the Nativity.

211.

I.—THE HOLY CHILD.

Quietly.

Cradled in a man-ger, In a stable bare, Lies a lit-tle infant, Pure and fair.

O-ver him his mother Bends with loving eye, While an old man watches, Standing by.

3 Far from home, and friendless,
Who so poor as they!
From the crowded inn door
Turned away.

4 Wearing with the journey,
And the hard world's scorn,
Here the mother welcomes
Her first born.

5 Oxen share his shelter,
Cold the night wind blows,
Straw his bed, and rough his Swaddling clothes.

6 Weak as other infants,
Child of want and care,
Claims he aught but pity,
Lying there?

II.—THE MIGHTY GOD.

Softly.

Why does that pale mother Gaze and tremble so, Showing deeper joy than Mo-thers know?

2 Why, before her baby
Does that mother kneel?
Whence the holy light her
Eyes reveal?

Moderate.

Cra-dled in that man-ger Lies the E - ter - nal Son, Who is with the Fa-ther, E - ver One.

On that mother's bosom Sleeps in slumber still He who ru- leth all things By His will.

3 Mary's child the prophets
Called Immanuel,—
God, with us His creatures
Come to dwell.

4 And the name of Jesus
God by Gabriel gave;
For, from sin His people
He shall save.

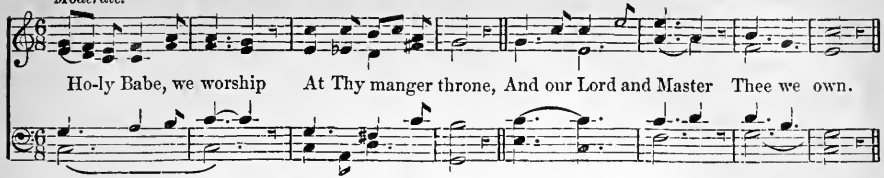

5 Faith can see the Angels
Watch around Him now,
And, before the infant,
Humbly bow.

6 Faith can hear them singing
Sweetest songs of praise,
Faith can catch the meaning
Of their lays.

Ho-ly Babe, we worship At Thy manger throne, And our Lord and Master Thee we own.

| 2 Oh! what love has led Thee
To be born for us,
All Thy power and glory
Hidden thus! | 6 Shall Thy form hang naked
On the shameful tree—
Friends all fled, and foes all
Mocking Thee? | 10 Thou wouldst have us joyful,
Even as Thou art,
Though we keep Thy sorrow
In our heart. |
| 3 Shall Thy love yet bring Thee
Into deeper woe
Than our coarser natures
Ever know? | 7 Yes, for this Thou camest
From Thy throne on high,
For us men to suffer,
And to die. | 11 We may hail Thy coming,
Saviour, Healer, Friend,
And, with Thee, look forward
To the end. |
| 4 Shalt Thou long and labour
Wandering souls to gain,
Calling sinners to Thee,
And in vain? | 8 On Thy path no sorrow
Shall unlooked for fall,
Thou, from the beginning
Knowest all. | 12 When in our frail nature
Thou hast toiled and died,
Thou shalt rise to heaven,
Glorified. |
| 5 Shall those hands so tender,
Feel the piercing nails,
While Thy life in torment
Sinks and fails? | 9 Yet, Thy joys are deeper
Than Thy sorrows are,
And Thy zeal to save us
Stronger far. | 13 Souls shall fill the mansions
In the home above,
Trophies of Thy sorrow
And Thy love. |

Christians, a-wake, sa-lute the hap-py morn, Whereon the Saviour of man-kind was born;

Rise to a-dore the mys-te-ry of love, Which hosts of angels chanted from a bove;

With them the joy-ful tidings first be-gun Of God In-car-nate and the Vir-gin's Son. A-MEN.

- 2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
Who heard the angelic herald's voice: "Behold
I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you and all the nations upon earth:
This day hath God fulfill'd His promised word,
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord."
- 3 He spake; and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire:
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole arch with alleluias rang:
God's highest glory was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and unto men good-will.
- 4 To Bethlehem straight the happy shepherds ran
To see the wonder God had wrought for man:
And found with Joseph and the blessed maid,
Her Son, the Saviour, in a manger laid;
Amazed, the wondrous story they proclaim,
The earliest heralds of the Saviour's Name.
- 5 Let us, like these good shepherds, then employ
Our grateful voices to proclaim the joy;
Trace we the Babe, who hath retrieved our loss,
From His poor manger to His bitter Cross;
Treading His steps, assisted by His grace,
Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.
- 6 Then may we hope, the angelic thrones among,
To sing, redeemed, a glad triumphal song;
He, that was born upon this joyful day
Around us all His glory shall display;
Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing,
Eternal praise to heaven's Almighty King.

The blessed angels sing.
- 3 O ye beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way,
With painful steps and slow!
Look now, for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing;
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

- 4 For lo, the days are hastening on,
By prophets seen of old,
When with the ever-circling years
Shall come the time foretold,
When the new heaven and earth shall own
The Prince of Peace their King,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

In the world He had created
There was not a room for Him!

And the golden halls above,
And He took our human nature
In the greatness of His love.
O Saviour, gentle Saviour, &c.

5 Of His infinite compassion
He can feel our want and woe;
For He suffered, He was tempted,
When He lived our life below.
O Saviour, gentle Saviour, &c.

6 Still His childhood's bright example
Gives a light to our poor homes;
From the blood of His atoning
Still our hope of pardon comes.
O Saviour, gentle Saviour, &c.

7 Still He stands and pleads in heaven
For us, weak and sin defiled,—

The Story of the Cross.

233.

I.—THE QUESTION.

Quietly. Voices in unison.

In His own raiment clad—With His Blood dyed; Women walk sorrow-ing By His side.

2 Heavy that Cross to Him—
Weary the weight—
One who will help Him waits
At the gate.

3 See! they are travelling
On the same road—
Simon is sharing with
Him the load.

4 Oh, whither wandering,
Bear they that tree?
He who first carries it—
Who is He?

Quietly.

II.—THE ANSWER.

Fol-low to Cal-va-ry—Tread where He trod—He who for e-ver was Son of God.

2 You who would love Him, stand,
Gaze at His face;
Tarry awhile on your
Earthly race.

3 As the swift moments fly
Through the Blest Week,
Read the great story the
Cross will teach.

4 Is there no beauty to
You who pass by
In that lone figure which Marks the sky?

Quietly.

III.—THE STORY.

On the Cross lift-ed Thy Face I scan— Bearing that Cross for me, Son of Man.

2 Thorns form Thy diadem,
Rough wood Thy throne—
For us Thy Blood is shed—
Us alone.

4 Nails pierce Thy Hands and Feet,
Thy Side the Spear;
No voice is nigh, to say
Help is near.

3 No pillow under Thee
To rest Thy Head—
Only the splintered Cross
Is Thy bed.

5 Shadows of midnight fall,
Though it is day—
Thy friends and Kinsfolk stand
Far away.

LENT.

6 Loud is Thy bitter cry:
Sunk on Thy breast
Hangeth Thy bleeding Head
Without rest.

7 Loud scoffs the dying thief,
Who mocks at Thee—
Can it, my Saviour, be
All for me?

10 What, O my Saviour,
Here didst Thou see,
Which made Thee suffer and
Die for me?

8 Gazing afar from Thee,
Silent and lone,
Stand those few weepers Thou
Call'st Thine own.

9 I see Thy title, Lord,
Inscribed above—
"JESUS of Nazareth,"
King of Love!

IV.—THE APPEAL FROM THE CROSS.

Moderate.

Part IV should, if possible, be sung by a Tenor or Bass voice.

Child of my grief and pain, Watch'd by my love, I came to call thee to Realms a-bove.

2 I saw thee wandering
Far off from me:
In love I seek for thee—
Do not flee.

3 For thee My blood I shed—
For thee alone;
I came to purchase thee—
For Mine own.

4 Weep not for My grief,
Child of my love—
Strive to be with Me in Heaven above.

V.—THE CRY TO JESUS.

Cheerful.

Oh, I will follow Thee, Star of my soul, Thro' the deep shades of life To the goal.

Yes, let Thy Cross be borne Each day by me, Mind not how heavy if But with Thee. A-MEN.

3 Lord, if Thou only wilt
Make me Thine own,
Give no companion, save
Thee alone.

4 Grant through each day of life
To stand by Thee;
With Thee, when morning breaks,
Ever to be.

Quietly.

Sa-viour, when in dust to Thee, Low we bow th'a-dor-ing knee;

When, re-pent-ant, to the skies Scarce we lift our streaming eyes;

O. by all Thy pains and woe, Suf-fered once for man be-low,

Bending from Thy throne on high, Hear our sol-emn lit-a-ny. A-MEN.

2 By Thy birth and early years,
By Thy human griefs and fears,
By Thy fasting and distress
In the lonely wilderness,
By Thy victory in the hour
Of the subtle tempter's power;
Jesus, look with pitying eye;
Hear our solemn litany.

3 By Thy conflict with despair,
By Thine agony of prayer,
By the purple robe of scorn,
By Thy wounds, Thy crown of thorn,
By Thy cross, Thy pangs, and cries,
By Thy perfect sacrifice;
Jesus, look with pitying eye;
Hear our solemn litany.

4 By Thy deep expiring groan,
By the seal'd sepulchral stone,
By Thy triumph o'er the grave,
By Thy power from death to save;
Mighty God, ascended Lord,
To Thy throne in heaven restored,
Prince and Saviour, hear our cry,
Hear our solemn litany.

Ho-san-na! loud ho-san-na! The lit-tle child-ren sang; Through bless'd them. Close folded to His breast, The children sang their prais-es,

The sim-plest and the best. A-MEN.

2 From Olivet they followed,
'Midst an exultant crowd,
Waving the victor palm branch,
And shouting clear and loud;
Bright angels joined the chorus,
Beyond the cloudless sky—
"Hosanna in the highest:
Glory to God on high!"

- 3 Fair leaves of silvery olive
They strewed upou the ground,
Whilst Salem's circling mountains
Echoed the joyful sound;
The Lord of men and angels
Rode on in lowly state,
Nor scorned that little children
Should on His bidding wait.

- 4 "Hosanna in the highest!"
That ancient song we sing,
For Christ is our Redeemer,
The Lord of Heaven our King.
Oh! may we ever praise Him,
With heart, and life, and voice,
And in His blissful presence
Eternally rejoice!

 Who Thy footsteps welcomed
 To Jerusalem.

3 God o'er all in heaven reigning,
 We this day Thy glory sing;
 Not with palms Thy pathway strewing,
 We would loftier tribute bring,—
 Glad Hosannas
 To our Prophet, Priest, and King.

2 Palms of victory strewn around Him,
 Garments spread beneath His feet,
 Prophet of the Lord they crowned Him,
 In fair Salem's crowded street,
 While Hosannas
 From the lips of children greet.

4 O, though humble is our offering,
 Deign accept our grateful lays:
 Those from children once proceeding
 Thou didst deem "perfected praise."
 Now Hosannas,
 Saviour, Lord, to Thee we raise.

I would solemn vigil spend:
Let me hew Thee, Lord, a shrine
In this rocky heart of mine,
Where in pure embalmed cell
None but Thou may ever dwell.

True affection's offering;
Close the door from sight and sound
Of the busy world around;
And in patient watch remain
Till my Lord appear again.

The Story of the Resurrection.

248. Not fast.

I.—THE QUESTION.

Ear-ly with blush of dawn, Speeding a - way, Shrouded in mourning robes, Say, who are they?

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 2 See, in their hands they bear
Spices most sweet,
Whom are they hastening
Early to greet? | 3 Whose is that garden-fold
Eager they seek,
Why that stone rolled away
Baffling the weak? | 4 Why are they pausing now
Close by the Cave?
Whom are they seeking for
In the dark grave? |
|---|---|---|

II.—THE ANSWER.

Not fast.

These are the Ma-ries three, Je-sus they seek, Who to the Cross was nailed, Gentle and meek.

- | | | |
|--|---|--|
| 2 This is the garden-fold
Wherein they laid,
Loving, His lifeless form,
Bold, yet afraid. | 3 Trembling, they now behold
Where He had lain,
Clothèd in shining robes,
Bright angels twain. | 4 Hark! they are speaking now—
“Fear not,” they say;
“Whom you are seeking here
Is risen to-day!” |
|--|---|--|

III.—THE STORY.

A little faster.

Long ere the morning dawn, O'er the seal'd stone; O'er where the keepers watch'd, Swift, He hath gone.

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 2 Lo! as with haste they came,
Bringing their tale,
Greeting, His voice was heard—
“Children, all hail!” | 5 “Peace,” once again He breathes,
“Bear it abroad,
Peace to the contrite soul
Thirsting for God!” | 8 “Feed this dear flock of Mine,
Bought with My Blood,
Preach ye, baptize, and win
Souls to their God. |
| 3 When fell the eventide
Through the closed door
To His disciples came
Jesus once more. | 6 Thomas the eighth day come,
Chiding, He bade
Touch the deep scars and wounds
The nails had made. | 9 To your and My Father-God
Now I ascend,
Yet in My Church abide
On to the end!” |
| 4 See, at His feet they kneel,
Blessings to win,
“Peace,” He is whispering,
“Pardon from sin.” | 7 In the fair morning hour,
Nigh to the sea
Asked He of Jonas' son—
“Lovest thou Me?” | 10 Then on Ascension Day,
By His own might,
Jesus to Heaven went
Up in their sight. |

2 Crown Him, ye martyrs of our God,
Who from His altar call;
Extol the Stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown Him Lord of all.

3 Hail Him, the Heir of David's line,
Whom David, Lord did call;
The God Incarnate! Man divine,
And crown Him Lord of all!

4 Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed of the fall,

Hail Him who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him Lord of all.

5 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go, spread your trophies at His feet,
And crown Him Lord of all.

6 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all Majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Then we may check the hasty word,
Give gentle answers back again,
And fight a battle for our Lord. 5 There's not a child so small and weak
But has his little cross to take,
His little work of love and praise
That he may do for Jesus' sake. |

2 All the walls of that dear City
Are of bright and burnished gold;
It is matchless in its beauty,
And its treasures are untold.
Oh, that I might, &c.

3 There are sounds of many voices
In the golden streets above,
Filling all the air with gladness,
Blended in eternal love.

4 In those quiet resting places,
Midst the pastures green and fair,
Jesus gathers in the homeless,
And He dwells among them there.
Oh, that I might, &c.

5 Can we see the happy faces
Of the dear ones gone before?
They are ready now to greet us
When we gain that blessed shore.
Oh, that I might, &c.

6 Then the pearly gates, unfolding,
Never shall be closed again,
We shall see within the City
JESUS, 'mid His white-robed train.

Here to catch that happy strain!
Oh, I would my eyes some vision

 Didst vouchsafe a child to be,
 Guide their steps and help their weakness,
 Bless and make them like to Thee;
 Bear Thy lambs when they are weary
 In Thine arms and at Thy breast,
 Through life's desert dry and dreary,
 Bring them to Thy heavenly rest.

3 Spread Thy golden pinions o'er them,
 Holy Spirit from above,
 Guide them, lead them, go before them,
 Give them peace, and joy, and love:

I love to think, though I am young, My Saviour was a child;

That Je-sus walked this earth along, With feet all un - de - filed. A-MEN.

2 He kept His Father's word of truth,
As I am taught to do;
And while He walked the paths of youth,
He walked in wisdom too.

3 I love to think that He who spake,
And made the blind to see,
And called the sleeping dead to wake,
Was once a child like me.

4 That He who wore the thorny crown,
And tasted death's despair,

Had a kind mother like my own,
And knew her love and care.

5 I know 'twas all for love of me
That He became a child,
And left the heavens, so fair to see,
And trod earth's pathway wild.

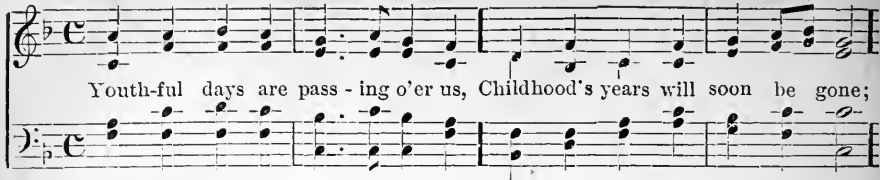

6 Then, Saviour, who wast once a child,
A child may come to Thee;
And oh! in all Thy mercy mild,
Dear Saviour, come to me.

2 But there is yet another voice,
That speaks in gentlest tone—
I think that we can hear it best
When we are quite alone.

3 It is a still, small, holy voice,
The voice of God most high,
That whispers always in our heart,
And says that He is by.

4 The voice will blame us when we're wrong,
And praise us when we're right;

We hear it in the light of day,
And in the quiet night.

5 And even they whose ears are deaf
To every other sound—
When they have listened in their hearts
The still small voice have found.

6 And they have felt that God is good,
And thanked Him for the voice
That told them what was right and true,
And made their hearts rejoice.

Palms of glo - ry, rai - ment bright, Crowns that nev - er fade a - way,

Gird and deck the Saints in light, Priests, and kings, and conquerors they. AMEN.

- 2 Yet the conquerors bring their palms
To the LAMB amidst the Throne,
And proclaim in joyful psalms
Victory through His Cross alone.
- 3 Kings their crowns for harps resign,
Crying as they strike the chords,
"Take the Kingdom, it is Thine,
King of kings, and LORD of lords."
- 4 Round the Altar Priests confess,
If their robes are white as snow,
'Twas the Saviour's Righteousness,
And His Blood, that made them so.
- 5 They were mortal too like us;
O, when we like them must die,
May our souls translated thus
Triumph, reign, and shine on high.

3 Great and ever greater
Are Thy mercies here,
True and everlasting
Are the glories there.
Where no pain or sorrow,
Toil, or care is known,
Where the Angel-legions
Circle round Thy Throne.

4 Brighter still and brighter
Glow the western sun,
Shedding all its gladness
O'er our work that's done;
Time will soon be over,
Toil and sorrows past,
May we, Blessed Saviour,
Find a rest at last.

5 Onward, ever onward,
Journeying o'er the road,
Worn by saints before us,
Journeying on to God:
Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

6 Bliss, all bliss excelling,
When the ransomed soul
Earthly toil forgetting
Finds its promise goal;
Where in joys unheard of Saints with angels sing,
Never weary raising
Praises to their King.

Earnestly.

Ten thou-sand times ten thou-sand, In spark-ling rai-ment bright,

The ar-mies of the ransomed saints Throng up the steeps of light.

'Tis fin-ished! all is fin-ished, Their fight with death and sin;

Fling o-pen wide the gold-en gates, And let the vic-tors in. A-MEN.

2 What rush of Alleluias
Fills all the earth and sky!
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph nigh!
O day, for which creation
And all its tribes were made!
O joy for all its former woes
A thousand-fold repaid.

3 Oh, then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore,
What knitting severed friendships up,
Where partings are no more!
Then eyes with joy shall sparkle
That brimmed with tears of late;
Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.

4 Bring near the great salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain,
Fill up the roll of Thine elect;
Then take Thy power and reign:
Appear, Desire of nations,
Thine exiles long for home:
Show in the heavens Thy promised sign;
Thou Prince and Saviour, come.

Joyous.

On our way re-joic-ing as we homeward move, Hearken to our prais-es,

Day by day Thou find us doing what we can,
Thou who giv'st the seed-time wilt give large increase,
Crown the head with blessings, fill the heart with peace.

Conquered hath our Leader, vanquished is our foe!

In the way we go,
Lead us on victorious
Over every foe;
Bid Thine angels shield us
When the storm-clouds lour,
Pardon Thou and save us

May we join above,
Offering prayers and praises
At Thy Throne of love;

2 Forward when in childhood
 Buds the infant mind;
 All through youth and manhood,
 Not a thought behind:
 Speed through realms of nature,
 Climb the steps of grace;
 Faint not, till in glory
 Gleams our Father's face.
 Forward, all the life-time
 Climb from height to height:
 Till the head be hoary,
 Till the eve be light!

3 Forward, flock of Jesus,
 Salt of all the earth,
 Till each yearning purpose
 Spring to glorious birth;
 Sick, they ask for healing,
 Blind, they grope for day;

Pour upon the nations
 Wisdom's loving ray.
 Forward, out of error,
 Leave behind the night;
 Forward through the darkness,
 Forward into light.

4 Glories upon glories,
 Hath our God prepared,
 By the souls that love Him
 One day to be shared;
 Eye hath not beheld them,
 Ear hath never heard;
 Nor of these hath uttered
 Thought or speech or word.
 Forward, marching eastward
 Where the heaven is bright,
 Till the veil be lifted,
 Till our faith be sight!

2 Into God's high temple
Onward as we press,
Beauty spreads around us,
Born of holiness;
Arch, and vault, and carving,
Lights of varied tone,
Softened words and holy,
Prayer and praise alone:
Every thought upraising
To our city bright,
Where the tribes assemble
Round the Throne of light.

3 Nought that city needeth
Of these aisles of stone:
Where the GODHEAD dwelleth,
Temple there is none;
All the Saints, that ever
In these courts have stood,

Are but babes, and feeding
On the children's food.
On through sign and token,
Stars amid the night,
Forward through the darkness,
Forward into light.

Loudest anthems raise;
To the SON and SPIRIT
Echo songs of praise;
To the Lord of glory,
Blessed THREE in ONE,

Endless honours done;
Weak are earthly praises;
Dull the songs of night;
Forward into triumph,
Forward into light!

All good gifts returned with her returning King:
Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
Speak His sorrows ended, hail His triumph now.
Hell to-day is vanquished; Heaven is won to-day.
- 3 Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,
Hours and passing moments praise Thee in their flight;
Brightness of the morning, sky and fields and sea,
Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to Thee.
"Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.
- 4 Maker and Redeemer, Life and Health to all,
Thou from Heaven beholding human nature's fall,
Of the Father's Godhead true and only Son,
Manhood to deliver, manhood didst put on.
Hell to-day is vanquished: Heaven is won to-day!
- 5 Thou, of Life the Author, death didst undergo,
Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show;
Come, then, True and Faithful, now fulfil Thy word,
'Tis Thine own Third Morning! Rise, O buried Lord!
"Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.
- 6 Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan's chain;
All that now is fallen raise to life again;
Show Thy Face in brightness, bid the nations see;
Bring again our day-light; day returns with Thee!
Hell to-day is vanquished; Heaven is won to-day.

In robes all pure and white We chase the shades of night, The gloom shall pass a-

- 2 Advance! Advance! though sore the strife,
Though timid hearts are quailing,
The Lord of Hosts doth lead our van,
And He is all availing:
With His blest Presence near,
No mortal foe we fear;
Our Captain goes before,
'Mid strife of battle sore;
The Lord of Hosts is with us.
- 4 Advance! Advance! lift up your hearts!
The sky above doth lighten;
Most dark around the shadows fall,
Ere rays of dawn may brighten:
The night is dark and chill,
The dawn is on the hill,
We reckon not of the night,
'Twill soon be warm and bright;
The Lord of Hosts is with us.
- 3 Advance! Advance! nor gaze behind,
Nor deem the pathway weary;
The Leader's footsteps print the track,
Through all that region dreary:
In faith we follow on,
We tread where He has gone;
The stormy wind may rave,
The stormy wind we brave;
The Lord of Hosts is with us.
- 5 Advance! Advance! ah, dearest Lord,
'Tis Thou, 'tis Thou dost lead us;
'Tis Thou dost point the narrow way,
'Tis Thou dost tend, dost feed us:
No power, no might have we,
Our strength is all of Thee;
At morn, at eventide,
Our aid, our hope, our guide.
Great Lord of Hosts be with us.

In joy upon that Face awhile,

From far away we come to you.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of six systems of music. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 6/8 time signature. The melody starts with a quarter note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, Bb4, and C5. The piano accompaniment consists of eighth notes in the right hand and quarter notes in the left hand. Dynamics include mf and pp. The lyrics are: "From far a-way we come to you; The snow un-der foot and the moon in the sky, To tell of great ti-dings, strange and true, Christian men all, sal-va-tion is nigh! Sal-va-tion is nigh. From far a-way we come to you; To tell of great ti-dings, strange and true; From far away we come to you, To tell of great ti-dings strange and true." The score ends with a dim dynamic marking.

air de - spite, Met three kings to - geth - er. One was old with snow-white hair,

One the prime of manhood bare, And the third, a youth, stood there With them on the heath-er.

2 Looking for the promised King,
Who, in Eastern quarters,
Soon should spring to life, to rule
O'er earth's sons and daughters,
Them this eve, while rapt in sleep,
One had roused in accents deep,
"Haste ye; watch ye; vigil keep
By Euphrates' waters!"³

3 Up they spring, and quickly hie,
Each his pathway bending,
Through the chilly mist and gloom,
O'er the earth depending,
How the world in darkness lay,
Till the Day-Star shed Its ray,
Nature thus would fain display;
Mystic emblems lending.

4 Then the kings with solemn gaze
Looked on high beholding;
For the marvel yet to come,
Heav'n their spirits moulding,
When behold, with silent awe,
Suddenly the clouds they saw
Like a darkened veil withdraw,
Wonders more unfolding.

5 In a trice a star shone forth,
O! so brightly shining!—
Nearer, nearer yet it came,
Still towards earth inclining!
And 'twas shaped—O wondrous sight!
Like a child enthroned in light,
Crown'd, though yet, with sceptre bright,
Victor—cross combining!*

6 Then one cried, "Behold the star
Of which seers have spoken,
Beaming on the land afar,
And of life the token!
Haste we, brothers! let us speed;
See, it moves! It comes to lead
To the Christ, of Judah's seed
Born of line unbroken!"

7 Up they rise, and bend their way,
Toil nor labour sparing,
Over mountain, hill, and plain,
Costly treasures bearing.—
So do ye your off'rings make,
Fear no pain for Jesu's sake,
Ever strive heaven's road to take,
For your Lord preparing!

From the East, the wise men,
Watch it shining clear;
Asking, "Shall we follow
In this starlight way?"
Answering, "Yes, 'twill lead us
To the perfect day."
3 In a lowly Manger,
Lies an Infant weak;
Is it He whom wise men
Come so far to seek?

- Asking, "Where the monarch?
Where Judea's King?"
Saying, "Gifts and worship
To His throne we bring."
4 In our hearts, we children,
See this Star once more;
Not as wise men saw it,
In the days of yore;
Asking, "May we bring Him
Childhood's love to-day?"
Answering, "Come, dear children,
Jesus says we may."

Leading up to Jesus,

4 Sing we now, rejoicing,
For to us as well
That bright Star so glorious
Doth glad tidings tell.
5 With them let us worship,
For our Light has come:
Star of Bethlehem! lead us
Safe to Heaven our Home.

More glo - rious than the star - lit morn, We've sang at Je - sus' Birth!

But now He's broken Death's dark bands, Our Jesus, strong to save! Way! Sing

* The last two lines of verse 3 are repeated.

2 Fair blossoms on the Easter morn
Fling forth their fragrance sweet,
And tell of Resurrection-joy,
And Jesus' work complete!
But fairer still the offering
Each loving heart should bring,
Of faith and love and penitence,
To Christ, its risen King.

3 So on this glorious Easter-day
Our gladsome songs we raise,
And echo e'en to Heaven's own gates
Our happy notes of praise!
For He who died is risen again,
"The Life, the Truth, the Way!"
Sing on, ye happy Christian hearts,
The Lord is risen to-day.

On Easter morning early,
When day had scarcely chased the gloom,
And dew was white and pearly;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
With loving but with erring mind
They came the Prince of Life to find:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

4 But one, and one alone, remained
With love that could not vary;
And thus a joy past joy she gained,
That sometime sinner Mary:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
The first the dear, dear form to see
Of Him who hung upon the tree:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

3 But earlier still the Angel sped
His news of comfort giving;
And "why," he said, "among the dead
"Thus seek ye for the living?"
Alleluia! Alleluia!
"Go tell them all and make them blest,
"Tell Peter first, and then the rest."
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

And Easter hymns are sounding,
And Easter flowers are blooming gay,
The holy Font surrounding;

Saw watchful shepherds on the hills,
No human soul was near.

4 'Twas sung by countless multitudes
Of Angels pure and bright,
And o'er the bare and silent hills
There shone a glorious light ;
Such heavenly music ne'er was heard
Before by sons of men,
And never more shall song like that
Be heard on earth again.

We know the tidings which they brought
Of Christ our Saviour's birth,
Their song of "Glory be to God,
Good will and peace on earth ;"
And so the Christmas carol, sung
By Angels long ago,
Is sweeter than all other songs
Which Christians sing below.

'Neath the stars that shone so bright, Shepherds watch'd their flocks by night; Suddenly, in glorious guise, Came an an - gel from the skies, Stood beside them, did not chide them,
Told the ti-dings glad and free, " Christ In-car - nate deigns to be." A - MEN.

2 Born this day of David's line,
Now behold the Babe Divine;
Rude the raiment that enfolds Him,
Rough the manger-bed that holds Him;
Lord all holy, laid so lowly,
Who from highest realm of heaven
Stoops that man may be forgiven.

3 May we all with heart and voice,
Still in Bethlehem rejoice,
Thither by the bright star led
To the House of Living Bread;
Chant the story of His glory,
Till His Majesty we see
At His last Epiphany.

Now a new year o - pens, Now we newly turn
To the Holy Saviour, Lessons fresh to learn. AMEN.

2 This the holy lesson
On the year's first day,
Jesus by obedience
Teaches to obey.

3 Of Thy Cross thus early
Tokens Thou dost give;
By Thy wounds Thou healest,
By Thy death we live.

4 Not to suffer only,
Jesus, didst Thou come,
But to leave us way-marks
Pointing to our Home.

5 In Thy blessed footsteps
Ever may we tread,
Safe when keeping near Thee,
By Thy Spirit led.

2 Angels carolled this sweet lay,
When in manger rude He lay;
Now once more cast grief away,
Glory in the highest.

3 He, then born to grief and pain,
Now to glory born again,
Callest forth our gladdest strain,
Glory in the highest.

4 As He riseth, rise we too,
Tune we heart and voice anew,
Offer homage glad and true,
Glory in the highest.

And praise Him all day long,
And sing in never-ending strains
Their blessed joyous song.

3 These holy Angels never choose,
And never wish nor ask
For other work than what God gives.
To be their daily task.

4 And we must like the Angels be—
Not choosing good or ill,
But humbly striving day by day
To do God's holy will.

And our faith and our hope are the same ;
And we think of the Cross on which Jesus has died.
When we bear the reproach of His Name.
- 3 We will watch ready armed if the tempter draw near,
If he come with a frown or a smile ;
We will heed not his threats, nor his flatteries hear,
Nor be taken by storm nor by wile.
- 4 For the world's love we live not, its hate we defy,
And we will not be led by the throng ;
We'll be true to ourselves, to our Father on high,
And the bright world to which we belong.
- 5 Now let each cheer his comrade, let hearts beat as one,
While we follow where Christ leads the way ;
'Twere dishonour to yield, or the battle to shun,
We will fight, and will watch, and will pray.

In the might of our God we will stand ;
Oh, what joy to be crowned and be pure evermore,
In the peace of our own Fatherland !

Some angel may be there in time,
Deliverance shall arise.

That make the spirit pure.

And we His followers here,
Must do Thy will, and praise Thy Name,

Accept our feeble praise.

"Worthy the Lamb of God ;
For He was slain to save us
By His most precious Blood."

4 Come, praise Him for glad tidings
Heard in this hallowed place—
Glad tidings of salvation,
